

Unspoiled Arizona gravel! Foliage in New England!
Iconic Tour de France climbs! All the wine! These are the 26 absolute-best, unmissable, bucket-list bike trips on the planet.

Get. Out. There.

BY PETER FLAX

CLIMBING THE
MARE DE DÉU
DEL MONT NEAR GIRONA, SPAIN.

Courtesy Tristan Cardew/The Service Course

WHERE ARE YOU RIDING THIS YEAR?

11

BEST PRO-LEVEL TREATMENT

The Trip → Portugal: Lisbon & the North | The Outfitter → In Gamba

Though In Gamba is known for unparalleled cycling experiences in Italy, there's no getting around the company's Portuguese roots—more than 80 percent of the staff come from Portugal, including the founder, João Correia (former pro racer and Bicycling publisher). And this trip—which heads north on quiet roads from Lisbon, through the wine lovers' Douro Valley, and ends in Port—taps that native brain trust to show riders a side of the country that is at once authentic and luxurious. Everyone gets pro-style perks like a Pinarello Dogma F12 with eTap, daily bike wash, kit laundry, and massage from a real soigneur. And with more than 35,000 feet of climbing on the itinerary, that massage might be a lifesaver.

7 days / 380 miles / $7,950 / Advanced

YOU MIGHT ALSO LIKE

Tuscany: Chianti Classico | In Gamba → Nobody does pro pampering like In Gamba, and this is the company's most classic offering—a unique blend of exquisite riding, food, wine, and atmosphere.

7 days / 262 miles / $4,950+ / Intermediate/advanced

Courtesy Van Gogh Tours

Jared Gruber/Gruber Images

CLIMBING THROUGH THE TERRACED
VINEYARDS OF PORTUGAL'S
DOURO VALLEY.